FUNDRAISING PROGRESS

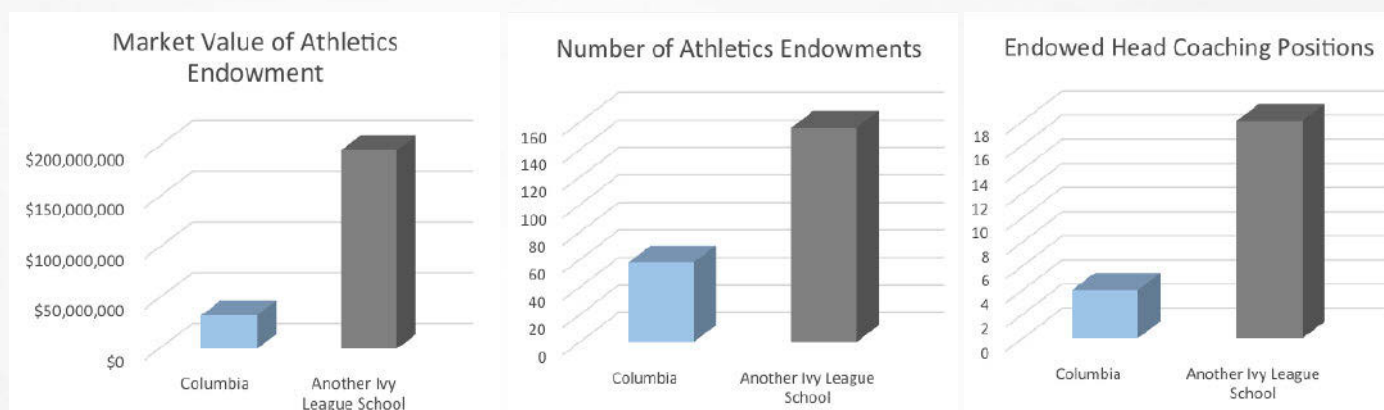

ENDOWMENT SNAPSHOT

Thanks to your support, we have made tremendous progress over the past 15 years in annual giving to our varsity sports programs and The Fund for Excellence.

Now we have a tremendous opportunity to build our athletics endowment to make us competitive with our Ivy League peers.

ENDOWMENT COMPARISON: COLUMBIA VS. PEER IVY

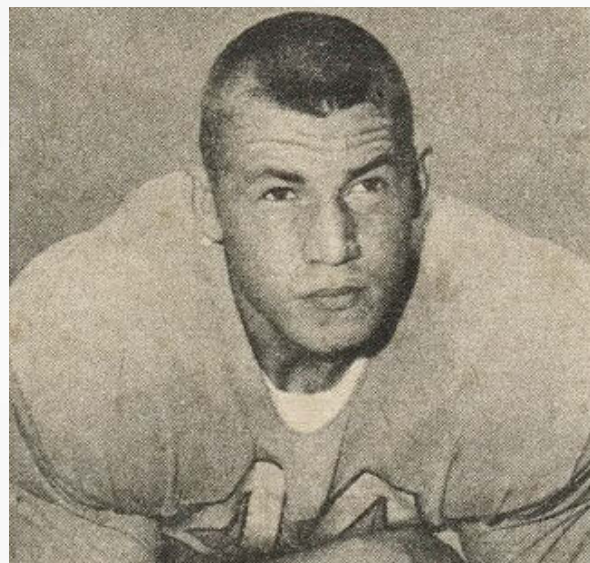

For more information about endowments and endowment opportunities, please contact Katie Day Benvenuto '03CC, '12BUS, Director of Athletics Development at 212-851-4025 or kad57@columbia.edu.

DONOR SPOTLIGHT

Ed Malmstrom '65CC stepped forward with an exceptional commitment to Columbia Athletics in Fiscal Year 2015, as part of his 50th Columbia College reunion year. In total, the gift commitment of $1.2 million encompassed Football, Baseball, Track & Field/Cross Country, and The Rugby Club, and included both immediate gifts and substantial contributions through Ed's estate plans. Portions of the gift supported or will support Endowment Funds for Baseball (newly established by Ed's generosity), Football, and Rugby; other portions underwrote pressing Capital Needs for Track & Field/Cross Country and Baseball; and yet another portion went directly to the Football Annual Fund as a show of support for Coach Al Bagnoli, a special gift during Ed's 50th reunion.

Ed Malmstrom '65CC

"We don't have many four sport athletes, so Ed has always been a special part of the family. His gift is no exception. What makes his commitment unique is the breadth of the impact he has made, his willingness to consider Planned Giving options, and his understanding of the importance of building endowment even as we raise money for immediate needs," remarks Katie Benvenuto '03CC, '12BUS Director of Athletics Development.

Over 2,500 people donated to Columbia Athletics on the day. Of those, 774 were first-time donors, while 588 people had participated in all three Giving Days.

THE WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

The Women's Leadership Council, founded in 2007 by Lisa Carnoy '89CC, Donna MacPhee '89CC, Dr. M. Dianne Murphy and Philippa Portnoy '86BC, '90BUS, is a leadership giving recognition society for women. Since its inception, The Women's Leadership Council members have contributed more than $2 million in leadership support to the Athletics annual funds.

In Fiscal Year 2015, The Women's Leadership Council comprised 125 members who contributed more than $440,000, making it the most successful year to date.

In Fiscal Year 2015, new levels of membership within the Council were rolled out: Silver membership, marked by cumulative annual gifts of $2,500 or more to The Fund for Excellence and/or Columbia Athletics' 31 varsity sports programs over the course of the fiscal year (July 1 – June 30), and Blue & White membership, marked by cumulative annual gifts of $1,000.

Through a special challenge match made possible by Helene Halperin Tagliaferri '83SEAS, nearly 100 women joined the Council on Giving Day. For the first time ever, all fifteen women's sports had representation on the Council.

Gatherings throughout Fiscal Year 2015 included a fall reception at Barneys New York, a strategic decision-making seminar with Columbia Business School Professor Joel Brockner hosted by Whitney Weems Mogavero '00CC, and a summer boat cruise on the Hudson River.

The Trevor fund will provide $5,000 to three male and three female student-athletes annually for increased domestic and international travel for elite competition. Coach Michael Aufrichtig remarks: "This gift will be a tremendous help in developing future World and Olympic Team members. Furthermore, the ability to offer travel stipends is a key asset in recruiting against scholarship schools, helping us defend not only our Ivy League but also our NCAA Championship."

Generously given by Stephen Trevor '86CC, two-time All-American (epee).

Athletics Director Peter Pilling introduces Al Bagnoli as Columbia's new Head Coach

Coach Bagnoli, ESPN's Marcellus Wiley and Peter Pilling at a special event in Los Angeles in spring 2015.

FOOTBALL

Head Football Coach in February 2015.

Every Player Endowment Fund

A significant donation was made towards the Every Player Endowment this year. This is an important fund for Columbia Football, to be spent on program priorities identified by the head football coach. Al Bagnoli remarks "this fund gives me the flexibility to focus on the initiatives most important for the advancement of the program. It is the kind of resource that is going to help me prove that Columbia Football is a sleeping giant in the Ivy League."

Bequest from Walter Day

Walter Day, a loyal and passionate fan of Columbia football for many years, remembers every game he has ever attended, beginning with his very first in 1947. Though not an alumnus, Day has supported Columbia's football program for years. He is also making a significant gift through his will to provide unrestricted support for the football program. "The Ivy League is tough," Day says. "You have to attract students who are qualified academically and can handle the workload of school and sports. What you get, then, are student-athletes of high character. These are great kids, and they deserve a strong program."

The Geiger Fund for Men's Golf Foreign Tour

The Geiger fund will allow the Men's Golf Team to travel internationally for foreign tours, to further each team member's golf experience and to enrich each team member's education experience through exposure to the cultural history of the region of travel. The foreign tour is culminated with The Geiger Trophy tournament, in which team members compete for the Geiger Trophy. Named in honor of his father, Howard W. Geiger, the Geiger Trophy was established to commemorate Howard's generous and extensive efforts on behalf of the University during his tenure as Chairman of the Parent's Committee of the Columbia College Fund from 1963-1967.

The Ken Torrey Squash Coaching Endowment Fund

The Torrey coaching endowment will allow the Squash program to sustain its rapid growth by providing resources to attract and retain some of the most desired Squash coaches in the world. The fund was named after recently retired Ken Torrey. Geoff Grant '82SEAS said of Ken's 42 years at Columbia: "42 years with a smile on his face, 42 years of unbridled enthusiasm for everything he does...The 4th ranked team in the country could not have been possible without the Father of Columbia Squash." The title of the program's head coach will forever be The Kenneth W. Torrey Head Coach of Squash.

Thanks to a lead gift from Annette '83BC and Geoff Grant '82SEAS, among other generous donors.

New Shells

Five state-of-the-art shells were contributed to Columbia Rowing this year: the Karl Ludwig Selig, the Dean Dakolias, the Michael Zimmer, the James T. McMenamin, and the Henley 1985 II. New oars were also purchased for the team by Lightweight Rowing Young Alumni. Ensuring that the teams have the latest technology is an essential part of the Rowing program's success in the highly competitive Ivy League.
